Minutes: April minutes were approved as written.

New Business:

Site Council Application:

- Three applications were received for next year's parent representatives. Carolyn McNicoll and Christy Garrard were voted in as Issaquah High representatives and Sue Hamke was voted in as a representative for the Skyline High boundary area.
- E-News will be sent out for one more Skyline parent representative

Bathroom Fire:

- Identical situation as last January
- It's been turned over to Arson Investigation and police
- Bomb dogs were on campus checking all the common areas of the school – lockers, hallways, commons
- Dana has made a request with the district for internal security system – cameras in the hallways, by the gym and in the commons

Break-in:

- 5/8/09 – PCFC had a break in
- The window in the door by the orchestra room was broken and that is where they entered
- Police did not respond
- All doors to classrooms and hallways were locked so the intruders did not get very far
- Nothing was stolen, and very little vandalism was done

Penny Bomb:

- 5/13/09 – a student ignited a "penny bomb" between the portables and the school
- UTube shows how to make these bombs
- All students involved are being dealt with

RIF Notices:

- All teachers on the RIF list or that are non-continuing have received their RIF notices
- After the budget is finalized, the master schedule will be completed and staff will be re-hired according to the district policies

Old Business: None
